1. Use of NNR

The manuscript on "Use of NNR" are moving forward and the NNR2022 Committee have discussed and adjusted drafts on all meetings the last months. The Committee aim to submit the manuscript for publication in Food & Nutrition Research before the summer.

2. Methodology for setting DRVs

The manuscript on "Methodology for setting DRVs" are moving forward and the NNR2022 Committee are still discussing and adjusting drafts. This manuscript will most likely be submitted to Food & Nutrition Research after the summer.

3. Revised budget

Due to the COVID-19 situation, the NNR2022 Committee have not had physical meetings the last year leading to lower expenses related to travel and meeting activities. Saved funds will be used to pay honorarium to involved experts, i.e. chapter authors and experts involved in the work on environmental sustainability and systematic reviews.
